

Pipes Alive!

January 3, 2016 - Scott Lamlein, organ
New Year's Resolutions

Share awesome music.

Toccata in D minor, BuxWV 155 Dieterich Buxtehude (1637-1707)

Seize the day.

Mein junges Leben hat ein End (six variations) Jan Pieterszon Sweelinck (1562-1621)
My young life has an end

Create more quiet time.

4'33" John Cage (1912-1992)

Remember loved ones.

White's air William Churchill Hammond (1860-1949)

Be grateful.

Now thank we all our God Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)
arranged Virgil Fox (1912-1980)

*Donations may be received at the rear of the nave.
Your generous gift will help Sacred Music at the Red Door continue to bring concerts to this community.*

Austin Organ, Opus 2761, 1995 - 51 stops, 64 ranks, 3721 pipes

Sacred Music at the Red Door 2015-2016

Celebrating Twenty Years of the St. John's Landmark Austin Pipe Organ

Pipes Alive! Concerts

on the first Sunday of each month at 12:30 p.m.

February 7	Natasha Ulyanovsky
March 6	Kari Miller
April 3	Ben Gessner
May 1	Vaughn Mauren
June 5	Scott Lamlein

Silent Film with Jason Roberts, organ
Friday, January 8, 2016, 7:00 p.m.

Bach's Art of Fugue with SYREN Modern Dance
Co-sponsored by the Greater Hartford Chapter, American Guild of Organists
Saturday, April 9, 2016, 7:00 p.m.

20th Anniversary Concert and Gala Reception
The St. John's Adult and Youth Choirs present Requiem by John Rutter with special guest organist Ralph Valentine
Sunday, May 22, 2016, 3:00 p.m.

St. John's Episcopal Church
679 Farmington Avenue (near Prospect Street)
West Hartford, CT 06119
www.RedDoorMusic.org

Sacred Music at the Red Door