

30th Anniversary Concert

In 1989, the very first Pipescreams concert began with Ed Clark playing Bach's Toccata & Fugue in D minor, as he will tonight. James Barry, who organized this first event, will also present a work in the program as well. The original 1989 program cover is above. In these thirty years, despite many boos and hisses, this event has served to raise awareness of our beloved instrument and money for those learning it.

Music at the Red Door present*
